

WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

From Gunner's Mate Third Class Billy Waters came a letter this week to advise us that he is still going strong and enjoying the Sierra Sun even though it sometimes gets there late. Bill says that he often sees Geno Guidi, who is a lieutenant J.G. on the same battlegroup. "I wish I could tell you a few of the things we have been doing," Bill wrote, "but I guess they can wait for a while." He asked to be remembered to all his friends here and abroad.

Then, we have a welcome V-mail letter from Pvt. Nick Sassarini who is with the combat engineers in India or Burma. He told of meeting his cousin, Calvin Sassarini, the former school teacher who is with the airborne engineers. He wanted to get in the same outfit but found he was needed too badly where he is. Nick also enjoys the Sierra Sun, he said, but like others, finds it is sometimes delayed in transit while more important matter goes through the mails. He sends regards to all.

Fireman 2/c Frank Giovannoni now stationed in St. Louis wrote this week to advise us of his new address and the fact that he really enjoys the hospitality of St. Louis. "The people are really treat you royally," he declared. "I don't know of another place I would rather be with of course the exception of home. I am sure glad we moved from San Diego. I didn't like that so well. It is nothing to be walking down the street in St. Louis and have some one stop you and ask you to go to dinner at their home. Another thing that amazed me here were the USO's. There are many and they are really large. They have anything you might want." Frank said he spent his first liberty in St. Louis enjoying the sights. He even took in the big league game between the Cards and the Pirates and has signed up for the World Series tickets already. Frank says he will miss the hunting season and can just see the fellows here getting prepared for the opening. "Good luck to them all," he finished.

We were also pleased this week to get a letter from Soundman Billy Marts of the navy who is "resting" in a hospital in Hawaii. "It seems good," Bill wrote, "after not being on land for over eight months. I spent most of my time in the Marshalls. We sank a sub about the second month out so that is one less to worry about. We were up near Guam when it was shelled and I was at Saipan. I have seen Japs but they were unattractive, but I'll soon forget that I hope." Bill enjoys the Islands and his bit of rest.

Al Williams with the Sea-Bees in the Pacific writes to tell us how much he is enjoying getting the home town paper "It's just like being there for Sunday dinner (without the dinner)." Al wrote, "only on Sunday we have no beer or highballs to pass the time away or good trout fishing as that in Lake Tahoe." He hopes to be back at Tahoe and Truckee by next August to catch up on his fishing and "bar fatigue." Al is in what he calls "the prettiest island in the New Hebrides group" and he doesn't mind it a bit.

Gunner's Mate Jim Frazier of Tahoe wrote home that it can now be told, as he has received a special citation and the Purple Heart following the episode while he was on active duty which resulted in shrapnel wounds to his face, legs and feet. He was off duty for 43 days, spent two weeks in bed and several weeks on crutches. Although when he wrote his wounds were not entirely healed, he had returned to active duty and contends that the scar on his face is "distinguishing." He had planned to skip the whole thing but reports from other sources were ahead of him.

Pictures of him in camp accompanied a letter to his mother, Mrs. E. A. Meiss from Cpl. Jack Garrison in Burma, who is with a detached medical unit. A search for Miss Kathleen Starratt, Red Cross worker there ended pleasantly when the two met quite suddenly. Kathleen is a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Anderson of Tahoe. Jack said that he is at a clearing

My Place In The Sun

By CPL. DOUG BARRETT

Excerpts from letters from the Canada theater of war operations

Last night the Dutchess and I went to see "Hello, Frisco, Hello" at the local shadow palace. Some of the place names—Pacific street, Market St., O'Farrell St., Nob Hill, etc.—gave me a touch of nostalgia. It was a darned clever musical altho the Hays' office conception of Barbary Coast sure wasn't anything like we've been led to believe by historians. Alice Faye was the feminine lead and her nose still looks shiney to me but— for the type of show—she really turns up a good job of entertaining if not acting.

We've moved The Dusty Digest into new offices, or rather into an office. Up to now I'd been working off a packing box in the special service store room, surrounded by ball bats, hockey sticks, skis, phonograph records, pool cues and library books not in circulation. Now I've got a dandy little office with a long desk, lots of space and windows in a separate building. The walls, where there are no windows, are plastered with maps of all the war fronts and I have enough books on the desk to make it look like a newspaper office. I suppose now that I've got this thing well set up "I'll be moved."

Well, I've still got this war to win so will close for now.

FRANCES POLYANICH KEITH WEEDEN TO BE MARRIED SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Polyanich have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Polyanich to Seaman 1/c Keith Weedon, which will be performed by Monsignore O'Connor at the Lady of the Snows Church at Reno Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The families and close friends will be present at the religious rites and a dinner which will follow.

A brown suit with white accessories has been chosen for the bride ensemble, with a corsage of gardenia completing the costume.

Mrs. Alexander Alcorn of Reno, the former Renee Hart, and Walter Bretthauer, uncle of the bride, will attend the young couple. A wedding trip to Lake Tahoe will precede their arrival in San Francisco where the future benedict expects to be stationed with the Coast Guard.

Miss Polyanich and her fiancé are well known here where they attended schools. The former graduated from Mt. Saint Mary's high school at Grass Valley and has since been employed here.

Weeden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert T. Weeden graduated from the local high school and later entered the Coast Guard service and only recently returned after two years of duty in the Hawaiian Islands.

Sincere best wishes of their many friends are extended to the couple.

Tax Is Lowered By Supervisors In This County

Ten Cent Reduction Made On Basic Rate In County

The board of supervisors in session this week, in consideration of post war plans, asked architect George Sellon of Sacramento to draw up specifications for improvements on the county courthouse deemed advisable and for building to be done at the county hospital. Sellon will be remembered here as the man who drew up plans for the Veterans' Memorial building.

The supervisors also set the basic county taxes at $1.40 which when broken down would be: general, .96; salaries, .34; junior college tuition, .04; Veterans' building, .06.

This is a ten cent reduction from the 1943 tax rate.

The taxpayer this year may not get the ten cent reduction as the basic rate does not include the various district taxes, school taxes, etc.

Additional taxes to be paid by the property owners of Truckee include Truckee School, .26; Meadow Lake Union High School, .24; Truckee school, interest and sinking fund, .10; Sanitary maintenance, .60; Sanitary Interest and Sinking fund, .20; Truckee Fire District, .30. Total to be paid $3.10 on each $1000 assessed valuation for those in the above districts.

The total to be paid by those in the Donner Trail Joint district will be $1.90 while at Floriston the rate will be $1.64.

CAFES ASKED TO PUT UP BASIC PRICES

Many restaurant operators have not yet displayed the poster of 40 basic items which should have been posted in their establishments not later than August 26, Robley E. Passalacqua, price executive of the Sacramento district office of the Office of Price Administration, declared this week, in reminding proprietors that August 31 was the deadline for filing in triplicate with their local OPA board a list of the ceiling prices for the 40 items contained in the official poster.

Man Dies In Local Crash

Thomas Moose, 55, who since Sunday had been employed at the state quarantine station by the Kaiser Company, interviewing newcomers to the state relative to jobs, was fatally injured west of Donner Summit about 7:30 o'clock last night when a motorcycle on which he was riding went off the highway and threw him into the rocks. His head was badly crushed.

With Moose, who is a resident of Richmond, at the time of the mishap, was his nephew, Henry Lingo, 30, of the Reno Fire Department, who was not hurt.

N. F. Dolley took Moose to the Washoe Hospital last night and he expired this morning.

Senators Discuss Post War Plans

Meeting Will Be Held At County Seat For Hearings

State Senator Jess Mayo of Calaveras County, chairman of the legislative interim committee on post war construction, accompanied by two other members of the committee, Senator J. L. Seawell of Roseville and Senator Charles Brown of Inyo County and Harold Norton of the Department of Public Works, stopped over night in Truckee en route to Downville where they will conduct a post-war planning meeting with Sierra County officials.

Tomorrow they will conduct a similar meeting at Nevada City at which time a Truckee delegation will be present to offer plans for this immediate area.

While here Senator Mayo, who is a candidate for congress from the Second Congressional District at the November election, discussed local issues with friends and both he and Senator Seawell, who is Mayo's district campaign manager, urged support of a mountain county man to represent this region at Washington.

Both Mayo and Seawell volunteered to meet with the fish and game commission to ask support for rearing ponds for fish in this district and for securing a more comprehensive propagation and conservation program for fish and game.

Regarding the Truckee river problem, Mayo said:

"If elected to congress, I shall exert every effort to have the flow of water in the Truckee river and its tributaries maintained. I can appreciate the current damaging effect and can only assure you of my desire to be of assistance in this as well as other matters in this district."

SCHOOL COSTS ARE REPORTED GAINING

State support for the Truckee elementary school district totaled $3,866 for 1943-44, based on an average daily attendance of 63 pupils. In 1932-33, the year immediately preceding the transfer of county school support to the state, the state provided $2,569 for 79 average daily attendance in the district, California Taxpayers' association reported, analyzing the trend of state aid for public schools in California.

In Nevada County, state support for the elementary school districts for 1943-44 totaled $107,829 for 1,377 elementary pupils in average daily attendance. In 1932-33 state support for the elementary school districts in the county totaled $50,694, for 1,346 pupils in average daily attendance, the association found.

: Sun : Beams

by WALTER M. BARRETT

One thing we will never understand is why so many people leave the Tahoe and Truckee resort areas so early in the fall. Between now and the first heavy snowfall, the snappy, invigorating mountain air is health giving and enjoyable. The scenery, beautiful the whole year around, is at its best in the fall, when leaves are turning and nature prepares for the coming of winter storms. Once our summer visitors have enjoyed the falls, we are sure they will remain later in the year unless, of course, business and schools call them earlier.

One of the best habits you can acquire, both for yourself and for the development of your community, is the trade-at-home habit. Try it and learn the difference.

Indicating the trend of the times, Lake Tahoe resorts this season set new records in patronage. People are worn down with the fast city life and are anxious for the comparative quiet and blissful enjoyment of the high Sierra. We predict, and with plenty of reason, that the end of the war will see the greatest influx of people into the surrounding area the district has ever known. There are many things we need to do to care for this condition and with the reports of the war being as they are, it is surely not too soon to lay plans.

NORDEN TEACHER EXPIRES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

Miss Gertrude Elizabeth Kreisler, who has been serving as teacher of the public school at Norden, died after four days' illness at the Soda Springs Hotel early Tuesday morning.

Four days before, when she felt indisposed, Miss Kreisler moved to the Soda Springs hotel from her home. Her condition became more critical and she called an ambulance from Auburn to take her to the hospital, but before the ambulance had reached Monte Vista Inn, the educator had expired. Alvah Hooper of the Hooper and Weaver Mortuary firm at Grass Valley was notified and the body was taken to Grass Valley.

Miss Kreisler was a native of Placerville and was born April 11, 1894. A surviving sister, Mrs. H. J. Culbertson of Oakland went to Grass Valley to make the funeral arrangements.

Hunting Season Opens In This Area Sept. 16th

Rules Are Issued For Safe Hunting As Time Draws Near

Prospects for a better-than-average deer hunting season in this district are foreseen by the nimrods who are oiling up their trusty muskets and preparing to sally forth in search of the popular red point savor.

Because of the absence of storms the deer may be found in the higher places but they are said to be more plentiful than usual and in good condition.

The season in this district will open for 30 days on September 16.

In connection with the opening of the season, the National Automobile Club's Outing Department, in calling attention to the fact that about 2600 Americans are killed with firearms annually, issues the following advice:

1. Never carry a loaded gun in an automobile.
2. Keep the safety lock on until ready to shoot.
3. Never pull a gun through a fence. Open the gun, lay it on the far side of the fence, then climb over and pick it up.
4. Never shoot at a moving object unless you see it distinctly enough to know what you are shooting.
5. After a fall or climb, be sure the gun barrels are not plugged with earth.
6. Don't leave your gun and shells near a stove or fire.
7. Deer hunters should wear a red cap, and a red coat or other red accessories if possible. Don't wear anything white.
8. Carry a good hunting knife and a compass, a light rope, matches and perhaps a candy bar.
9. Never rush toward a fallen deer—he may not be dead.
10. Gunpowder and liquor don't mix—so don't try it.
11. Eat a substantial breakfast before going into the field.

Uncle Sam wants your appliances to last. Keep them
in repair!

Look over all the appliances in your home. Check particularly those appliances you use constantly, like the range, vacuum cleaner, refrigerator, washing machine and iron or ironer. Do any of these need repair or conditioning? Durationize your appliances with constant care and timely repair. That also means careful use to avoid abuse. Blasting your radio at full volume, for example, can shorten its life. Use it, but tune it down. Open your refrigerator door as seldom as possible. Keep your fireplace damper closed when heating equipment is in use. It prevents heat waste up the chimney. Your government wants your present appliances to last for the duration. Their services save you time and money.

PROPOSITION WOULD ADD TO RELIEF FUND

The 525 needy aged people receiving aid in Nevada county for July would be multiplied about four times and the $23,819 aid paid to these people in the county in July would be multiplied considerably more under terms of Proposition No. 11 on the November ballot, California Taxpayers association stated this week.

A two-way stretch in aid to the needy in California is contained in the provisions of the proposed initiative constitutional amendment, the association said. The number receiving aid would be increased and the amount paid would be increased.

BLISTER RUST IS FOREST PROBLEM

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 31.—(UP)—About 15 per cent of the pine forest area of California is its own worst enemy, State Forester M. B. Pratt revealed today.

It consists of open park-like sections where gooseberry and current bushes—hosts of blister rust—grow freely. The bushes are less abundant in thick timber, Pratt pointed out.

Ultimately, Pratt said, the host bushes must be rooted out of all sugar pine lands if this valuable lumber species is to be saved.

The state of California allocated $100,000 in its 1943-44 budget toward a cooperative blister rust control program handled by the United States Forest Service for the state and for owners of timber land, Pratt added.

WORKED HARD TO RESIGN

Are you thinking of resigning your job? Well, listen to the story of a young Swedish boy who once had that idea. He couldn't be blamed because he was getting only $35 a month as a soda jerk.

His name was Charles R. Walgreen. Born on a farm in Illinois, he had come to Chicago to get a good job—the job included waiting on a fountain.

One day Mrs. Sourpuss came in, ordered a glass of Vichy water in a hurry, had to catch a street car. Since the woman was in such a hurry, young Charlie Walgreen, washing the glassware, took a glass from the sodium water. He was using and without waiting to dry it filled it with Vichy water. The sodium water gave the glass a smoky appearance, so the customer thought it dirty.

She hit the ceiling; well at least the chandelier, and gave the boy a piece of her mind. She forgot all about catching the street car. Then she went to the rear of the store and told her story to Mr. Valentine, the proprietor. He knew the glass wasn't dirty, but he wanted to save the customer's ragged wound, so he jumped all over the clerk.

Charlie Walgreen was so mad that he made up his mind to resign. But some customers came in at that moment and kept him busy. At last the opportunity came for him to go to the boss and throw up his job. But the boss had gone to lunch. So he had a chance to cool off and do some thinking. He said to himself, "I am no good as a clerk and if I resigned now it would really be a relief to the boss. I'll stay on a while, work hard and become a good clerk. Then when I walk out, it will give the 'old cuss' a jolt."

So he started in to work very hard indeed. He put all the stock in order, worked longer hours, even shortened his lunch period. Friday night the boss said: "Charlie, I never saw such a transformation in anybody in my life. You've improved so that I am going to raise your salary."

When Charlie finally gave up that job, he discovered that he had had a lot of fun out of it, and a raise in salary without asking for it. Walgreen told me personally that his desire to show his boss he was a good clerk before he resigned, changed his life and resulted in whatever success he had attained.

He is dead now, but there are more than 500 Walgreen stores. Probably he never would have founded them if he had resigned that day.

Brush and forest fires have threatened this district for the past week or more, with smoke from a large fire at Glenbrook blanketing the mountains on the Nevada shore for several days. The Tahoe Park Forest Service crew had a bad time of it September 1 and 2 when they turned out in force to battle a blaze which covered 500 acres at Dog Valley. Approximately 50 men were sent in from Reno and other places to augment the local crews. A high wind prevailed both days but the fire was under control around the end of the second day. Hunters and fishermen are warned to use care in discarding cigarettes and campers are admonished to be certain fires are out before moving on.

Inspector and Mrs. Harvey Blackwell of Sacramento are enjoying a visit at their summer home near the Tahoe hatchery.

The W. W. Mein, Jr., family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fay and family have left for their homes on the peninsula following a vacation at the Mein home in Tahoe Park.

Mrs. H. H. Searles has returned to her Tahoe home near Carnelian Bay following a visit in San Francisco.

Kenneth Fox here on a two weeks vacation left Sunday for a dental college at University of California at Los Angeles. While here he enjoyed some successful fishing trips.

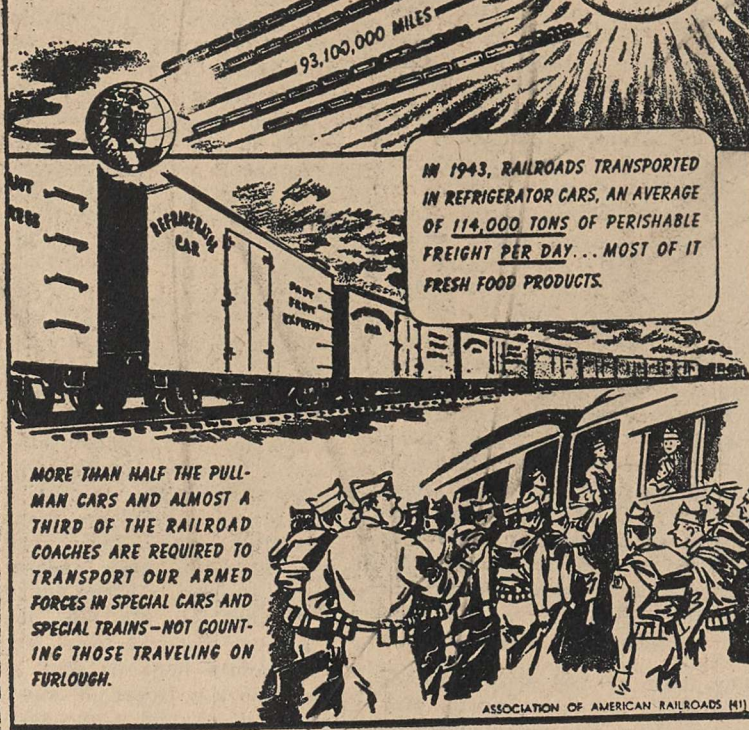

In Timberland Tract Judge and Mrs. C. C. McDonald of Woodland, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kennedy of Oakland and the A. P. Leach family of Walnut Creek are again enjoying a vacation.

Hunting season gives promise of a lively time both for local and for the outsiders. Bud Jones of Squaw Valley reports that he anticipates the best season for pack trips of his many years at Tahoe.

Miss Lois Reeves enjoyed the holiday weekend home from the University of Nevada.

TAHOE PARK, Sept. 7. The many former neighbors and friends of the Jess Sisk family, former caretakers at the E. B. ## TAHOE LETTER

To the Service Men

From SWANEE

Tahoe City, Calif.
September 7, 1944

Dear Tahoeites:
Another lovely Sunday is drawing to a close and the Tahoe region welcomes this last Summer holiday week end in behalf of the many visitors who managed to make their way up for the three-day vacation period. Morning and evenings are getting colder and the other day I found the first yellow leaf that fluttered down from the alder tree. The occasional breezes that blow now sing a song of Autumn in the lofty tree tops—the grass is beginning to die and the wild flowers are slowly but surely disappearing. Heavy frosts greet the early risers and some of the more tender plants have perished with the cold. We at Tahoe hope for many more beautiful sunny days yet, but we are not unaware that it is time to start laying in winter supplies. Hope that big yellow moon that shines so heavenly out across the silent lake tonight finds you all in good health and peaceful frame of mind.

Last night we entertained at dinner two of Tahoe's former residents who brought back memories of the good old days ten years ago. They were Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Bradley of Palo Alto who spent many years in the Emerald Bay region and who will have a cabin on the Emerald Bay Riviera where they have just spent two weeks vacation, returning home today. They now have three children, two boys and a girl, ranging from 10 to 3 and a half years, but the kiddies stayed home with relatives this time. Rupert has worked throughout the war period with a construction unit at Moffatt Field and his wife Roberta has been serving as a nurse's aid, is a member of the Red Cross Motor Corps, plays violin in an orchestra and is active in her local USO chapter where she entertains service men. The Bradleys have kept in touch with Tahoe all through the years through the columns of the Sierra Sun and admit there is still a scramble for the paper when it comes, with the youngsters bee-lining for the funnies. During the evening another former Tahoeite joined our party, she being Rose Taverna, for many years now the postmaster at Meeks Bay, who also has a cabin at Tahoe Pines. So loudly did the Bradleys extol the praises for the Sierra Sun that we soon had another subscriber in Mrs. Taverna.

Mrs. Ernest Hoerder and two daughters have returned to Covina after having enjoyed the summer months at their Tahoe City home. Ernie will remain for the deer and fishing.

Gregory Ratoff of the movies was a guest at Tahoe Tavern recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kraft of Woodland have closed their Timberland cottage and left for home.

Today there arrived mail from the Harvey Hulls of Sacramento. Mrs. Hull is only just now recovering from the effects of a bad fall which kept her under medical treatment and confined to her home for over four months. She held a responsible position in Sacramento and hopes to have clear sailing from now on.

Had a lovely dinner Friday night at Forest Inn where reservations had just been made for Samuel Goldwyn, Darryl Zannuck and party who had been vacationing at Tahoe Tavern. Carl Olander, managing owner, said he is well pleased with the results of the season, despite rationing problems and the help situation. The popular eating place will be closed for the summer Tuesday, but will remain unofficially open until the 9th.

Tuesday morning marks the closing of the Tahoe Tavern, the last show at the Casino being booked for Tuesday night. The Tavern has enjoyed the most prosperous season of its history.

Haven't the dope yet on the other resorts, but know that many will remain open until later in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Weller Atherton of Tahoe City have received another letter from son, Corporal Leslie Atherton, radioman in India who spends most of his time in a plane these days. He wrote interestingly of the recent travels which included a visit to the Taj Mahal. He also witnessed a quaint custom of the burning of bodies of deceased natives on the funeral pyres, but failed to see them cast any bodies of infants into the Nile, which is said to their way of disposing of the very young. Les is thinner but is well and enjoying his lot. He hopes for a furlough about Christmas time. His brother, Pvt. Allen, stationed at Muroc Field near the Mojave desert, who surprised his folks by walking in on them recently to spend a brief leave, gave them all a second surprise last week when he wrote home to say that upon arriving back at camp he had been made a corporal. Congratulations, Al. He is a member of a mechanical repair crew for the Link trainers and he too has lost weight in the desert heat. How our boys do yearn for the cooling invigorating breezes of Tahoe. The Athertons' nephew, Lt. Howard Hartley, missing in action over France on his 55th mission, still remains unheard from. Members of his family hope he may yet be reported as a prisoner of war. Crew members of another plane said they saw his plane explode in the air and are certain that at least one man parachuted to safety.

Had a note from my old neighbor and friend, Mrs. Gerda Vistberg, wife of Lt. Com. John Kvistberg, stationed at Avalon. She wrote that her husband's station may be closed down soon, in which case she may be able to spend the fall and early winter at her lakeside home in Tahoe Park.

The A. M. Andersons of the Village Store are undergoing one of those trying periods of waiting for a letter as daughter, Kathleen has remained unheard from for some time. She wrote that she was due for a transfer to the more mountainous India and would go to Red Cross headquarters where she would receive a new assignment. She was looking forward to several weeks sick leave in the mountains following her recent siege of pneumonia.

Mrs. Myrtle Gallinger principal of the elementary school, this week received a letter from Tommy Adam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adam of Ward Creek aCmp. Tommy wrote that he graduated from high school a month ago and immediately enlisted in the navy, being in a month before his 18th birthday. He is a member of his unit's boxing and swimming team. He is stationed at San Diego and sends best regards to his former classmates here.

A recent letter to the N. R. Mayfields from nephew, Douglas Smith, still in the San Diego hospital, tells of his slow but steady progress back to health. It is thought by his doctors that he might be well enough to resume his boot training, but later it was decided unadvisable as yet.

Funds for the building of the memorial wall along the highway in front of the Episcopal Chapel near the Tavern are being rapidly raised. Your correspondent, with the consent of Bishop Noel Porter, is taking upon herself the responsibility of securing a list of names of all Tahoe's sons in the service of their country, and I will make a financial donation to Bishop Porter in order that none will be left off the roll of honor which later will be posted permanently somewhere at the chapel. Any friend or family wishing to purchase space for a service man or woman may do so by mailing a check to Bishop Porter at Tahoe. Space sells for $3 a foot. It gives me great pleasure to aid in perpetuating the names of every one of you loyal sons of the Sierras.

News of the war on Labor Day is good on all fronts. Hitler was supposed to have spoken on the radio sometime today but as one commentator put it "he must have overslept." We Americans are proud of your exceptional successes all over the world and your kindnesses to the liberated people. Truly you are making the name of America something that all nations will remember with respect and reverence.

PS. Am forced to add a long PS this week as other service news just reached me.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Arthur Crist are sojourning at their attractive home atop Dollar Hill for several weeks. Col. Crist is president of the general courtmartial at Goat Island and is enjoying his two weeks rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stark of Dollar estate are blissfully happy this week with two sons home on vacation with them. They are AMM 1/c Jay Stark with his wife from Oakland and Rome Stark, senior airplane inspector at the Alameda Airbase who is on a seven day leave.

Another visitor who just departed from Tahoe Monday was PM Raymond Duffee, son of the Raymond Duffees of Sacramento and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Duffee of Lake Forest and Mr. and Mrs. Matt Green of Tahoe. He was accompanied by Miss Rebecca Boulton of Sacramento and was guest of the Greens and Duffees. Raymond distinguished himself by winning the Navy Cross and other awards at Tarawa. He still has ten days of his 30 day leave before reporting back to San Diego navy hospital for recuperation and rest and may be send back overseas.

CITIZEN SOLDIERS

don't waste a drop of gasoline

YOU, who have helped America build the mightiest war machine in the world, now proudly see it in action—attacking on every front. And like all machines it must be constantly fueled and lubricated. More than one-half of all war shipments overseas are petroleum products of one kind or another!

Two years ago, passenger cars used 4½ gallons of gas for every gallon that went to war. Today, as the black combat lines on the map become a tighter noose about the necks of tyrants, that ratio has changed to ½ gallon of gas for passenger cars to each gallon that powers the machinery of war. That is why the conservation of gas is more important than ever now; why it will become increasingly so until Victory.

The part of every Citizen Soldier is this: Share your car, the enemy rides in an empty seat. Don't apply for more gas than you really need, you'll be taking a fellow-American's share. Endorse your gas coupons, and rationing will go on working successfully. Don't take extra gas or coupons from anyone, you'll be taking gas away from some essential use—hurting our war effort. Remember, Gasoline Powers the Attack—Don't Waste a Drop!

"The gasoline Americans go without at home today is getting them the best 'mileage' they ever had... mileage on the road to Tokyo and Berlin."

POLITICAL PARADE - - -

By CLEM WHITAKE.

Will the United States, when the war is ended, be able to embark upon an "adventure in prosperity", with a healthy, expanding economy that will provide steady employment and incentive for the American people—or is the Nation foredoomed to go through a post war depression and another dreary era of widespread unemployment, pump priming, doles and subsidies?

The basic line of cleavage between the Republicans and Democrats, in this year's presidential campaign, is clearly defined in their respective answers to that all-important fundamental question.

The Roosevelt Administration, grown old in office, is no longer blazing the trails and seeking new horizons. Generally speaking, New Deal officialdom takes the gloomy view that there is no escape from a huge, semi-permanent army of unemployed and that the government must be prepared to spend billions to care for the jobless and hungry. This view, predicated on the assumption that America has reached the peak of its development, and that there are no new frontiers to conquer, is shared by the CIO Political Action Committee, which is consequently determined that the Nation's postwar planning must put a heavier emphasis on liberal unemployment insurance benefits and programs to give workers a bigger share in present wealth, rather than on programs to create new wealth and new reservoirs of employment.

The new, robust Republican Party, violently opposed to this defeatist philosophy, with young leadership and a firm faith in the Nation's future, takes the optimistic view that America's private enterprise system will have a tremendous stockpile of orders to be filled when peace comes—and that a country at work, with hope and high objectives, can work out its own salvation.

It is an interesting contrast, for many of the Nation's outstanding business and industrial leaders, who might normally be expected to err on the side of caution, share Governor Dewey's confidence that a post war depression can be averted, if government pulls in harness instead of reclining wearily on top of the load.

One of the major charges which Governor Dewey may be expected to level at the Roosevelt Administration—and one which will have telling effect if it is forcibly homered home—is that the New Deal has become so accustomed to using the public treasury as a crutch to lean on in every emergency that it has lost faith in its own ability, and that of the American people to walk unassisted.

If that issue is clearly defined, it may well become the major issue of the campaign—and that may topple the Roosevelt dynasty. For ironically enough, Roosevelt came into office when the people, rightly or wrongly, concluded that his predecessor, Herbert Hoover, had lost the ability to cope with a difficult situation. And Roosevelt, in turn, will certainly go down to defeat if the American people conclude his administration has become defeatist in its economic philosophy.

Don't use your gasoline coupons recklessly, nursing the false hope that when Hitler folds you can roll into a gas station and say "Fill 'er up!" For the slowdown from OPA is that the end of the European war won't end the gas shortage, particularly on the West Coast. The gas rationing problem here, due to the terrific activity expected in the Pacific, may be worse, rather than better.

Watch the betting odds after Governor Dewey visits California. This state, considered tough territory, may start a rush to the GOP bandwagon, if the Dewey speeches click. The general opinion in the betting marts is that Dewey might win without California, but that Roosevelt can't.

Lightening the Burden

IN one of his favorite stories Abraham Lincoln tells of a boy who was seen carrying his younger brother up a steep hill. Observing the effort the older boy was making, an adult called to him, "Isn't that a pretty heavy burden for you, son?" The boy replied, "It's not a burden, sir; it's my brother."

How true it is that love makes burdens light! Indeed, real love effaces all sense of burden. Great love is needed to lighten the burdens of a troubled world. Genuine, unflinching, compassionate love is needed: love that is the reflection and expression of divine Love. Life, and Truth; that lifts thought above the mortal belief of man as sick, suffering, dying, in danger, and points to the perfect man, forever held in the loving embrace of his Father-Mother God.

Freedom from all that shackles and enslaves must come through spiritual understanding of God and through the conscious reflection of divine Love in daily life. All men desire liberty—freedom from limitation of every kind. But too many still look to a material source for freedom instead of seeking liberation through the knowledge of God.

Divine Love does not place burdens on man, for Love is always Love, conscious of no opposite quality. A human parent would not deliberately place burdens of illness, suffering, and lack on his children; much less are such burdens imposed by our heavenly Father. His idea, man, is good, expressing health, happiness, abundance, assurance, and peace. Freedom from every sense of burden can be gained here and now as the wholly spiritual nature of God and man, Father and son, is understood. God is the only cause, and man and the universe are spiritual, like Him.

It is encouraging to note that in these difficult days great numbers of people are actuated by the desire to lift the burdens of others and to make the way brighter for them. On every side we hear of loving ministrations and of the giving of spiritual comfort. These outward indications of pure affection for our brother man are noteworthy signs of the times. This desire to be of service constitutes a great power for good and should be strengthened by enlightened prayer. Of prayer that is effective and fruitful Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 1), "The prayer that reforms the sinner and heals the sick is an absolute faith that all things are possible to God,—a spiritual understanding of Him, an unselfed love."

Christ Jesus emphasized two great commandments (Luke 10:27): "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself." Obedience to these commandments is true prayer. Truly to love God we must know Him; and truly to love our brother man, we must know him as he really is in God's sight. We learn to love God and man proportionably as we know God as divine Mind and man as His idea. . . .

Material sense claims insistently that man is separate from God; that he is sick, lonely, and in danger. It even appears to make good its claims, for nation fights nation and race battles race. All these claims of evil, however, should serve only to challenge us to more consecrated prayer for all mankind. It is not enough to pray once a day or even once an hour. Our lives must be a continuous prayer. Our words and acts must be so permeated with the assurance of divine Love's presence and power that the whole world will feel the healing effect. Great problems of war and peace await solution. These problems must be solved through the understanding of infinite Love dispelling the belief of hatred, fear, and destruction. This is truly lifting the burden. — The Christian Science Monitor.

FIRE HAZARDS ARE NOW ON INCREASE

Fire hazard in the Tahoe National Forest has reached the critical stage, according to forest officials.

Hunters, campers and vacationists as well as woods workers and industrial operators are urged to be on the alert to prevent fire and take instant positive action to suppress all small fires and report any and all fires to the proper authorities for follow-up action.

Man caused fires have to date all resulted from carelessness and have accounted for 97 per cent of the total area burned on the Tahoe Forest this year.

The rapid spread and difficulty of control of any fire from now on until the fall rains, makes every fire a potential catastrophe which can destroy life, cripple the forest industries and decrease the supply of lumber.
